Grow Better Here

Business growth is better in Carroll County thanks to the Carroll County Department of Economic Development (CCDED). With thousands of new jobs produced over the past few years, and those numbers only continuing to increase, CCDED has helped to cultivate a dynamic and diverse economy where businesses across various industries can find success - whether they're brand new, expanding, or simply in need of additional assistance from a skilled team.

Whether you're starting a new venture or growing an existing enterprise, Carroll County Economic Development is always in your corner. From site selections and project coordination to financing, workforce development, and more, our team is here for you for every question and concern. Not only will we help your business have a competitive edge in Carroll County, but you'll be connected to a community of supporters who want to see you succeed and can assist you along the journey. With CCDED, you'll never venture alone.
